Lively storytelling performances invite children to imagine and participate in traditional, literary, and original stories; drawing on a wide repertoire of stories for all ages and many situations.

Storytelling Programs to Celebrate the Season

Autumn Adventures – Stories to observe, discover, and delight in the golden days of Fall; tales of colored leaves, hibernation, and harvests. Leaf-print bookmark project upon request.

Halloween Howls – Gentle tales of jack-o-lanterns and slightly shivery deeds of daring to engage the youngest listeners (pre-K – 2nd). Halloween bookmark stamper project upon request.

Spooky Scary Screams – Hair-raising stories with enough shiver to engage the “tell a scary story” set (3rd – 6th or older). WORKSHOP on How to Tell a Story available for students and adults.
